

THE ISLANDER HOTEL

Rarotonga

The Islander Hotel, a small boutique Hotel featuring 11 air-conditioned, Polynesian inspired Beachfront Cabanas, is conveniently situated right across the road, a 2-minute walk, from the Rarotonga Airport.

Each room is configured with a king-size and single bed, private ensuite bathroom with shower and toilet, and welcome toiletries, ceiling fan, mini bar fridge, and tea & coffee making facilities.

The hotel is well-known for its waterfront location, open dining restaurant with panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean, and relaxed and casual atmosphere.

The Islander Restaurant and Tiki Bar, where your complimentary daily breakfast is served, is also open for lunch and dinner 7 days a week.

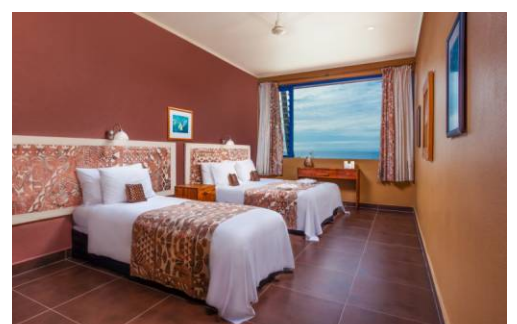

On Tuesday nights, the hotel hosts an authentic Cook Islands Cultural night where guests will enjoy local cuisine buffet style and brilliant dance and fire knife performances by the talented Akirata Dance Group.

Separate to the restaurant & Tiki Bar is the popular Hula Bar, an open beach bar with a large deck, spacious outdoor seating area, and of course more stunning views of the ocean. A great spot to unwind with a cold drink, and to mix & mingle with other inhouse guests and the locals.

For extra relaxation, the hotels Day Spa on-site offers a full collection of beauty services and massages.

The hotel also provides a complimentary bus shuttle to and from the airport, as well as twice daily to downtown Avarua, and to Black Rock Beach perfect for swimming and snorkelling or just relaxing on the white sand beach.

For those late night or early morning connections to or from international and domestic flights, the hotel, in its convenient location is no doubt the ideal choice with affordable rooms available to rest and shower before checking in to your flight.
